

CEODyne's Members Visit with US Secretary of Commerce

Des Moines, IA – Penny Pritzker, US Secretary of Commerce, is on a nationwide listening tour to learn how the private and public sector can work together to grow the economy and form jobs. While in Iowa, she visited with a panel of eleven business leaders – three of which were CEODyne members.

“We are proud to have three of our members represented in this important conversation,” says Terry Slinde, CEO of CEODyne. “Our members represent the spectrum of Iowa businesses. Not only do they support each other to grow their businesses, but also they are passionate about seeing economic growth in Iowa.”

“To have three CEODyne members in this August group of state leaders is a big accomplishment,” says group attendee and CEODyne member Bob Werson.
